

Courtesy of the Cobo Inn

LINCOLN CITY'S DIVERSE LODGING OPTIONS

Lincoln City offers an incredibly wide selection of lodging and accommodation choices. Whether your tastes lean toward a quaint B & B or an elegant oceanfront suite, you will find something to suit your desires and pocket book. Lincoln City has over 50 hotels and motels, 5 Bed and Breakfast properties, seven camping and RV parks and countless vacation rental properties.

Within this plethora of lodging options are choices to suite your individual needs. There are hotels and vacation rentals that are pet friendly, so you can bring your best friend with you. But if you are allergic or adverse to some one else's "best friend", there are plenty of Pet Free establishments as well.

Oceanfront establishments such as the Cobo Inn, Sailor Jack's and Surfides put the ocean at your fingertips.

Ocean front rooms run the range from exquisite to economical. Many have direct beach access. Along Highway 101 are a range of economically priced establishments, some, like the Landmark Best Western offer a surprising array of amenities. The Anchor Inn offers an incredible free breakfast in an eccentrically funky decor.

Vacation rentals abound in Lincoln City. Many agencies in town can locate just the property to fit your exact family or group lifestyle requirements. Vacation rentals are perfect properties to hold family reunions, or intimate retreats. Many are located right on the beach, or have spectacular ocean views.

If you are RV'ing to Lincoln City, you have your choice of several parks, some national chains, some regional operations and some locally owned and operated. Between these parks you can choose from ocean, lake or river access, depending on your location.

No matter what you drive or your lifestyle preferences, you are bound to find what you are looking for at one of Lincoln City's many lodging and RV establishments.

Courtesy of the Cobo Inn