

COHO OCEANFRONT LODGE

Take a Break by the Sea

Speaking of renovations, one place we strongly encourage you to check out is the recently refurbished Coho Oceanfront Lodge in Lincoln City. This is a kid-centric property that takes family-friendly to a fabulous level. The Coho Oceanfront Lodge is also an exemplary hospitality model for service, comfort and beauty. The property itself is nestled right on the beautiful coast with endless ocean views and access to great tide pools. The location alone is perhaps one of the best you will find at reasonable rates.

Recent hotel renovations really hit the mark on style and contemporary-infused accommodations. Ranging from studios to full family suites, there is a perfectly sized room for everyone. The rooms are modern, with earth-toned colors and environmentally friendly products such as naturally antibacterial bamboo-blended towels. The Coho Oceanfront Lodge even has family suites with separate fun-themed kids' bedrooms, featuring bunk beds and Wii or PS3 game systems.

The lobby is like a luxurious boutique gathering space, with the smells of home-baked chocolate chip cookies and freshly ground coffee to take back to your room. Right next to the lobby is an on-site indoor heated swimming pool, Jacuzzi and sauna. Mornings you will be treated to a delicious continental breakfast.

One of our favorite treats was the Coho Oceanfront Lodge's beach bonfire kit. It includes firewood, fire starter, roasting sticks, s'mores kit (graham crackers, marshmallows and chocolate bars) and a beach mat, all in a handy beach bag. The bonfire kit was offered for a reasonable fee, and the kids loved it!

For unbeatable hospitality, location, family-friendliness, class and value, we were impressed with the Coho Oceanfront Lodge in Lincoln City. Visit their website for all the details, photos and options for a memorable stay. www.thecoholodge.com
